

Roero Arneis D.O.C.G Tenuta Neirano 2018

Region

The unique low alpine region of Piedmont (or Piemonte), which means `at the foot of the mountains`, is located in northwest Italy around the city of Turin. The region includes the small and prestige hillside wine towns of Barolo, Barbaresco, Asti and Gavi, where a diverse variety of wine styles originate. Some of Italy`s most revered and expensive red wines come from the Nebbiolo grape, grown alongside Barbera, Dolcetto, Moscato and Cortese.

Producer

Owned by the Sperone family, an ancient 17th century villa was built on top of a hill in Casalotto di Mombaruzzo, near Asti, in the heart of Monferrato, Piedmont. Tenute Neirano`s origins began when Antonio Sperone began making wine in 1911, and is now a wine-growing and wine-producing estate of great importance which combines rural tradition and modern technology. Among the white Piedmont classics of insuperable quality we find Gavi. The internationally awarded reds include Barolo and Barbera d`Asti superiore. The best-vintage red wines are aged in small barrels, located in underground cellars at controlled temperature. The company has been strengthened with the recent arrival of Francesca and Andrea Sperone, 4th generation of the family. With its 30 hectares of own vineyards, Tenute Neirano has become one of the finest Italian wine producers.

Tasting Notes

Made from the Arneis grape, a local to the Roero district of Piedmont in Northern Italy and means "little rascal" in Piemontese dialect, so named because it can be difficult to grow. . This wine is a pale lemon colour with a greenish tinge. The palate is crisp and clean with notes of green apple, lemon and white blossom. Fruity and easy drinking, this wine has a lovely, harmonious acidity and a lingering fruit-forward finish.

Food

Ideal as an apertif or with salads and white fish.
