

Sauvignon Blanc `Five Ashes` Hamelin Bay 2013

Producer

The Hamelin Bay winery is located at Karridale in the southern point of the region within a few miles of the ocean. The 63 acre `Five Ashes Vineyard` is located on well drained gravel soils and faces north across the valley to gain the sun`s warmth in this cool region. The wines themselves are an expression of the natural beauty and uniqueness of the area, the fruit ripens with an intensity of flavour and richness of character. Owned by the Drake-Brockman family, who have a long association with the area, they have in recent years, achieved great recognition and awards for their range of outstanding wines.

Tasting Notes

The trendy Margaret River region is blessed with a fantastic climate and enjoys the sea influences from the Indian Ocean near by. The fresh nose exhibits pungent, kiwi fruit, lychee, and lemongrass with hints of passionfruit. On the palate the wine is elegant with mid palate weight and notes of citrus, peach, white flowers with undertones of tropical fruits.. In the mouth this wine is delicate with crisp acidity and a fresh finish.

Food

Enjoy with a dozen freshly shucked oysters or pan seared scallops and asparagus summer salads.
