Pofadderbos Sauvignon Blanc, Cape Agulhas 2023

Producer

Nestled between Elim and Cape Agulhas, and just 9km from the sea, lies the secluded Strandveld Vineyards. This wind swept winery derives its name from the belt of land which spans the tempestuous tip of Africas southernmost coastline. At almost 35 degrees below the equator, this part of the Cape is characterised by severe winds, billowing mist and below average temperatures. A unique combination of maritime climate and diverse soil types work together to create the terroir which distinguishes the wines of Strandveld Vineyards.

Tasting Notes

This vineyard, surrounded by local Elim Fynbos is known for its frequent encounters with dangerous Puff Adder snakes hence the name `Pofadderbos`! This cool climate Sauvignon Blanc is bursting with fresh passionfruit, grapefruit and even blackcurrant which have developed from slow ripening conditions. The palate has a rich creamy character, with notes of gooseberry, passionfruit, and a mineral element from the yellow iron rich soils of the vineyard. Long and complex with a refreshing grapefruit acidity.

Food

Pairs well with seafood, asparagus, tomato-based dishes, sushi, salmon and trout and goats cheese.
