

Cake Pinot Gris `Adelaide Hills` 2018

Producer

Cake wines is a contemporary winery from the Adelaide Hills. Founded by a group of young wine lovers with a passion for food, drinks and a broader creative culture. Their approach to winemaking is led by head winemaker Sarah Burvill and focusses on making quality, creative, expressive wines that represent a place and time and makes the world a more interesting place!

Tasting Notes

This aromatic Pinot Gris comes from the Diamond Ridge Vineyard in the southern part of Adelaide Hills. The grapes are hand harvested then gently pressed and fermented in a combination of stainless steel and 1-2 year old French oak which gives the wine its creamy texture. Ripe and round on the palate with notes of ripe pear, white peach and baked apples, a fresh acidity balances the rich character. The artwork on the label is by Marty Baptist and titled `wash your face in the morning sun`.

Food

Serve with river fish, veal and chicken dishes.
