

Ch. Brown Blanc Pessac-Leognan 2018

Region

Pessac-Leognan is a prestigious appellation in the Bordeaux region. A relatively new appellation, it was carved out of the Graves sub-region in 1987. The soils are predominantly made up of gravel and sand which is perfect for the regions main varietals. Cabernet Sauvignon and Cabernet Franc

Producer

Chateau Brown, as the name indicates, testifies to the close historical link between Bordeaux and Britain, when Scotsman John Lewis Brown established the estate at the end of the 18th century. The Chateau is located to the south of the city of Bordeaux on the excellent gravel soils of the northern Graves where Cabernet Sauvignon does so well for the traditional claret but its growing reputation has been achieved by making delicious white wines. These have an impressive ability to age well retaining fruit and youth for up to a decade.

Tasting Notes

The lively flavours of Sauvignon are restrained by the fullness of the Semillon which both thrive on excellent gravel soils of the northern Graves. Situated to the south of Bordeaux city, this area benefits from a unique terroir and maritime climate. This cuvee has spent some time in oak barrels imparting tender notes of vanilla in harmony with delicious floral fruits. It is an intense wine, firm in the mouth and full bodied with a long lingering finish and full rich mouth feel.

Food

Try with wild mushroom risotto, a vegetable terrine or seared scallops.
