Bolney Estate Lynchgate Bacchus 2021

Producer

The Bolney Estate in Sussex began five decades ago in 1972 when Rodney and Janet, who both had a passion for wine had the idea to run a vineyard of their own on British soil. Daughter Sam now runs the estate producing fantastic, award winning wines showing the quality of the future of English winemaking.

Tasting Notes

A lovely English dry white wine made from the Bacchus grape variety. The nose has fresh aromas of hedgerows, green apples and citrus fruits. The palate is crisp with a subtle floral character and a crisp, slightly smokey mineral note. Very clean on the finish with a grapefruit acidity.

Food

Scallops with pea puree, steamed sea bass with lemongrass, Pad Thai, salt and pepper squid. A perfect pairing with mille feuille and sweet pastry dishes.
