

Bolney Estate Lynchgate Bacchus 2021

Region

If you have never tried an English wine before – well now is your opportunity. The vineyards of England are generally located in the warmer southern counties where the milder influences of the gulf stream have an important effect, as our northern hemisphere vineyards need a longer cooler growing season than in Europe to produce top quality grapes. More than 500 vineyards are in production across the UK and bottled annual sales has reached 3 million bottles, with Chardonnay, Pinot Noir and Bacchus the most planted varieties.

Producer

The Bolney Estate in Sussex began five decades ago in 1972 when Rodney and Janet, who both had a passion for wine had the idea to run a vineyard of their own on British soil. Daughter Sam now runs the estate producing fantastic, award winning wines showing the quality of the future of English winemaking.

Tasting Notes

A lovely English dry white wine made from the Bacchus grape variety. The nose has fresh aromas of hedgerows, green apples and citrus fruits. The palate is crisp with a subtle floral character and a crisp, slightly smokey mineral note. Very clean on the finish with a grapefruit acidity.

Food

Scallops with pea puree, steamed sea bass with lemongrass, Pad Thai, salt and pepper squid. A perfect pairing with mille feuille and sweet pastry dishes.
