

Rully Rouge `Chaponnière` Tete de Cuvee Dom. Belleville 2021

Producer

Domaine Belleville was formed in Rully at the beginning of the 20th century, in the heart of the wine-making region of Burgundy. With 28 hectares of vineyards spread out from north to south Burgundy, Domaine Belleville offers distinctive wines full of elegance and finesse. It stands next to Chateau de Messey (Maconnais) and Manoir Murisaltien (Cote d'Or), all of which belong to the Dumont family.

Tasting Notes

The 28ha Belleville estate sits in the village of Rully where they cultivate several prized vineyard sites. The house style offers an honest reflection of the mineral rich style of Pinot with ripe summer pudding aromas. A brief maturation in cask adds complexity and softness to the exuberant flavour of cherries. This is very fine Burgundy, refined, elegant with a pure yet intense redcurrant fruit.

Food

Serve as an accompaniment to roast chicken, liver or kidneys, risottos or pasta dishes.
