Two Dogs, a Peacock and a Horse Sauvignon Blanc 2023

Region

Franschhoek is a broad vineyard lined valley in the southeast corner of Paarl, within the western cape. The vineyards are protected from oceanic influences by the mountains to the south, which also trap southerly cooling winds, lengthening the growing season. Grapes have been planted in the region since the late 1600s, when exiled French Huguenots brought over their viticulture to South Africa and settled in this area, Franschhoek which translates in Dutch to `French corner`. The hot climate here typically shows full bodied, complex reds and rich, fruit driven whites, there is also the association of Cap Classique production to this region. Culturally the area is known for its hospitality, music and variety of festivals.

Producer

They call themselves ‘Rebels of the Vine’ and are pushing the boundaries of a traditional industry and having fun with their wines as seen by their labels. Based in the quaint village of Franschhoek, Kevin, Jacques and Raymond came together to combine their diverse skills and creativity to make great wine. They took inspiration from their surnames to become the Black Elephant Vintners - Swart and Ndlovu become `Black Elephant` and Jacques is the Vintner! Their wines are inspired by good tunes and they firmly believe that music and wine make the best pairing - far from traditional and very Rock ‘n’ Roll!

Tasting Notes

Taken from multiple plots of vineyards accross Franshhoek this wine is both complex and balanced. The nose is opulent and bursts with a cocktail of fruits, showing aromas of peach, passionfruit and pear. The palate is lively and has concentrated flavours of tropical fruits and gooseberry with a creamy richness from the extened lees contact. The vibrant acidity and minerality linger on the finish.

Food

Pairs perfectly with prawn cocktail, scallops, globe artichoke salad and simple grilled fish.
