Pinot Grigio San Antini 2025

Region

The DOC region of Delle Venezie lies in the northeast of Italy. The Venezie in the title is not the city of Venice but the Tre Venezie (the `three Venices`). Venezia Euganea, Venezia Giulia and Venezia Tridentina. These are the names of three Italian administrative regions which existed between 1866 and 1919 and correspond to the modern-day regions of Veneto, Friuli-Venezia Giulia and Trentino-Alto Adige. Created in 2017, the DOC covers the Friuli-Venezia Giulia, Trentino-Alto Adige and Veneto regions, and permits the use of Chardonnay, Friulano, Garganega, Müller-Thurgau, Pinot Bianco, Pinot Grigio and Verduzzo.

Producer

The company was born as a retailer in 1928 in the Veneto region for sales of wines in casks and demi-johns to restaurants and small retailers. The company is now run by the third generation and from their roots in Veneto they now have a portfolio of wines produced in some of Italy's finest regions. Botter pride themselves on their focus of sustainability, going beyond reducing emissions, production of waste and non-renewable energy usage and taking a responsible approach for the whole production chain.

Tasting Notes

Made from 100% Pinot Grigio, and fermented in stainless steel at cool temperatures to create a fresh, fruity and easy drinking wine, which as a style has become one of Italy`s flagship white wines. Pale and delicate lemon-green in appearance and on the nose displaying aromas of lemons, apples and white blossom. The palate is full of citrus, pear and melon. Crisp and dry, it has a well balanced acidity with a refined and lingering finish.

Food

Excellent as an aperitif on a summers evening, otherwise pairs perfectly with white fish or grilled chicken.
