

Viglione Fiano Maioliche Puglia IGP 2023

Region

The heel of Italy, Puglia is a southern region known for its warm Mediterranean climate with the name thought to be derived from the Latin `a-pluvia` or lack of rain. This fertile region along the Adriatic coast is the heartland of the Primitivo grape variety (claimed as the origin of California's Zinfandel variety). Particular DOCs known for distinctive quality include Salento, Manduria and Gioia del Colle. The region is also known for a range of other native varieties such as Negroamaro, Susumaniello, Nero di Troia and Verdeca.

Producer

Tenuta Viglione is an organic producer family-run, sitting on the borderline of Basilicata and close to Gioia del Colle (translating to Joy of the Hills) and historical town of Matera. Soils have a mix of clay and limestone and fossils from when the land was under the sea, giving their wines fresh minerality. The Maioliche range can be recognised by their tile-inspired labels by the Italian pottery style it is named after, offering the "perfect balance between tradition and modernity". The range includes indigenous varieties of Primitivo, Negroamaro, Nero di Troia, Falanghina and Fiano.

Tasting Notes

This Puglian Fiano shows great typicity for both the grape variety and the region. Organically and sustainably farmed, the environmentally conscious wine is aged 100% in stainless-steel tanks to promote the aromatics of the variety. Intense developed fruit characteristics on the nose are complimented by delicate floral notes. Plenty of fresh acidity, the palate shows hints of green apple, lychee and white flowers followed by a refreshingly clean and lasting finish.

Food

Pairs well with fish dishes, seafood or as an aperitif.
