

Southern Pine Sauvignon Blanc Marlborough 2025

Region

Marlborough is by far New Zealand's largest grape growing region with more than two-thirds of all plantings. First planted in 1873 it is known in the region by the Maori name, Kei puta te Wairau meaning 'the place with the hole in the cloud' due to its very high 2,410 sunshine hours a year. High sunshine and a dry growing season help to create the famous intense flavours. Generally, plantings are in two main valleys of Wairau and Awatere. Much of the land is alluvial river basin with well-drained soils that provide an ideal for Sauvignon Blanc and clay slopes better suited Pinot Noir and Pinot Gris.

Producer

These wines have been specifically chosen for Ellis by our team of buyers. The focus of this range is to create high quality wines which capture the quintessential characteristics of varieties from around the winemaking world. As sustainability is something very close to our hearts here at Ellis, these wines have been shipped in the most environmentally friendly way and bottled at a carbon minus bottling facility.

Tasting Notes

This wine represents the fresh coastal regions of South Island, around Marlborough, with the picturesque pine forests of the coast. A typical Sauvignon Blanc, with fresh aromatics and an exotic fruit profile, with distinct gooseberry and nettles. The palate has a vibrant crisp acidity which is essential for this classic profile.

Food

Have as an aperitif on a sunny weekend, or pair with grilled fish and seafood.
